for as little as $50.00 per half-day workshop for members.

You must sign up for the entire series.

Spring 2017

Wednesday, 04/19 - Wednesday, 04/26 - Wednesday, 05/03

Tuesday, 05/09 - Wednesday, 05/17 - Wednesday, 05/24

9:00 a.m. – 12 noon

Registration begins at 8:30 am

Purpose: This intense series of supervisory training clinics will help you become more productive and successful as a supervisor. It will also help you to promote the productivity and success of others. Through self-assessment and feedback, you will become aware of your abilities and areas needing improvement. You will discover how your interpersonal behavior affects the performance of others. Through participative learning you will explore and learn appropriate leadership styles. You will gain skills in increasing your influence to gain support of others in the workplace. Through action planning, you will set specific, attainable goals for your continued development, and through Back-On-The-Job training you will have the opportunity to apply strategies and skills learned during the supervisory clinics.

Audience: Employees who are responsible for managing a function and/or supervising a work group or project team.

Topics Covered:

- How to define your role in the organization, identifying those skills required of excellent supervisors, managers and leaders.
- How to identify successful from unsuccessful leadership characteristics.
- How to improve your leadership ability by identifying your strengths and development needs from the perspectives of your boss, peers and employees.
- How to manage time for personal effectiveness and productivity.
- How to continue personal and career growth through self-directed development.
- How to influence up, down and across.
- How to develop a team.
- How to resolve conflict.

Facilitator: Joni Daniels is an accomplished and dynamic speaker who has delighted audiences of all sizes for more than twenty years. As a consultant, trainer and entrepreneur, Joni possesses a wealth of career experience from which she draws and develops targeted, relevant and substantive presentations for audiences at all levels of personal and professional development.
