Job Development & Job Coaching Webinar Series

Presented by

Marc Gold & Associates, Nationally Renowned Experts in Discovery & Customized Employment

The Community's Calendar:

Planning a Meaningful Day Outside of Work

Friday, May 19, 2017

10:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.

This webinar will focus on a strategy for identifying and organizing life activities to be performed outside of work that provide enjoyment, meaning and full participation in people's lives. The Community's Calendar is a planning process that is based on the scheduled events that are typical in one's community that are identified as a result of Discovery. This webinar will provide an overview of the basis of the concept as well as a discussion of the structure of the planning process.

(Registrants will receive information by e-mail regarding the call-in number and code for the Webinar)

Facilitator: Norciva Shumpert is currently a private consultant working with Marc Gold & Associates. She also co-directed a UCPA/Department of Labor, "One Stop to Success" project, a national project designed to implement the Workforce Investment Act of 1998. She served as co-director for the Choice Access Project, one of seven demonstration projects in the nation funded as a result of the 1992 Amendments to the Rehab Act. While at United Cerebral Palsy Association, she was also project director for a 40 site national Projects with Industry (PWI) project in the early '90's that employed over 1,000 persons with significant disabilities.
