Reaching Independence through Self-Employment
A Seminar on Self-Employment for People with Disabilities

Wednesday, February 24, 2010
9:00 a.m. - 12 noon

- ❖ What does it take to become a successful business owner?
- ❖ What does it take to help someone else become a successful business owner?
- ❖ What does it take to help someone with a severe disability to become a successful business owner?

This session will cover....

- ✓ Who is a good candidate for self-employment and how can that be measured?
- ✓ Which industries hold the greatest possibility for business success? Or for business failure?
- ✓ What programs will provide training and technical assistance for our consumers?
- ✓ Where are the capital resources to fund consumer-owned businesses?
- ✓ How about our consumers who are most severely disabled?
- ✓ Business Plans: What's the big deal?

This timely three-hour seminar will give you information you can use immediately to open this exciting vocation option to your consumers!

Presented by Morris Tranen, CEO of Partnership Development Group, Inc., and Director of the RISE (Reach Independence through Self-Employment) Program for the Maryland Division of Rehabilitation Services (DORS).
